

Northborough Police Receive Aqueduct Painting

Mrs. Gigi Casella presents Chief Leahy with her original painting of the Northborough Aqueduct.

May 18, 2010– Accomplished painter and longtime Northborough resident Mrs. Gigi Casella presented her beautiful, original painting of the Northborough Aqueduct to Northborough Police Chief Mark K. Leahy today. Accompanied by her husband Jim, Mrs. Casella stopped by the police station to deliver her gift, which depicts one of our town’s most recognized landmarks. Chief Leahy thanked Mrs. Casella for her thoughtfulness and generosity, adding “this wonderful painting will hang in our police station with honor.” Mrs. Casella said her painting was in memory of all Northborough Police Officers, and especially Sergeant Frank J. Mueller, who died in 2009.
