

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

A Proclamation

Whereas, The Commonwealth's experience with, and susceptibility to severe weather and natural hazards such as floods, blizzards, hurricanes, and tornadoes, compounded by the continued risk of terrorist attacks, pandemics, and other hazards, both natural and man-made, demonstrates the ongoing need for the state's residents to prepare for a broad range of emergencies; and

Whereas, The Executive Office of Public Safety and Security, which includes the Massachusetts Emergency Management Agency, Massachusetts State Police, Department of Fire Services, and the Massachusetts National Guard; the Executive Office of Health and Human Services, including the Department of Public Health; and the Massachusetts Department of Transportation, have the responsibility to protect safety, public health and property, and minimize injuries and the loss of life by preparing for, responding to, and recovering from disasters and emergencies; and

Whereas, The Massachusetts Emergency Management Agency, the Department of Public Health, the American Red Cross of Massachusetts and other public safety partners are promoting personal, family and community preparedness in the month of September to build resilience, help reduce casualties, and minimize the economic impacts of disasters in our communities and in our state; and

Whereas, Emergency preparedness is the responsibility of every citizen of the Commonwealth, families and individuals are urged to make preparedness a priority by following four steps: build a kit, make a plan, be informed, and get involved; and

Whereas, All residents of the Commonwealth are encouraged to participate in preparedness activities and use the preparedness resources at www.mass.gov/ready,

Now, Therefore, I, Charles D. Baker, Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, do hereby proclaim the month of September 2019, to be,

EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS MONTH

And urge all the citizens of the Commonwealth to take cognizance of this event and participate fittingly in its observance.

Given at the Executive Chamber in Boston, this first day of September, in the year two thousand and nineteen, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the two hundred and forty-third.
